Kelia Burns- Browder, the new Principal at South Highlands Middle School, is a distinguished educator with over 16 years of experience in education. Her dedication to student achievement has been a lifelong commitment. She started her educational career teaching Social Science and has spent six years as an assistant principal on both the high school and middle school levels.

For the last 5 years she has been supporting students, families, and educational professionals as the Assistant Principal in the Bullock County School district. Mrs. Burns-Browder has a Bachelor of Science, Masters of Education, and Specialist Degree from Alabama State University.

Kelia Burns-Browder's educational background and personal experiences have helped shape her philosophy of education. She believes all students are capable of learning at the highest level possible and our educational system will provide our children with the skills needed to be successful in our global economy.

She is a devoted wife and mother of two, a fan of educational research and a member of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc. She spends her spare time reading, and developing mentoring programs for young ladies that attend rural schools.

Mrs. Burns-Browder is excited about the upcoming school year. She is up for the challenge and ready to grow Hornet strong with the faculty, staff, students and community stakeholders in Bullock County.
